

HAZARDOUS MATERIALS/WMD AWARENESS

-10hr course taught by Alabama Fire College's Workplace Safety Training-

JANUARY 26-27
FEBRUARY 23-24
MARCH 9-10

FREE CLASSES - TAUGHT VIA ZOOM

Two 5hr-days beginning at:
10:30am EST / 9:30am CST /
8:30am GMT / 7:30 PST

COURSE TOPICS:

- Federal Regulations Regarding HazMat Response
- Hazard Recognition and Identification
- Hazard & Risk Assessment and Outcomes
- Actions to be Taken by Awareness Responders

THIS COURSE IS INTENDED FOR:

- All tribal members/employees
- Law enforcement personnel
- Firefighters
- Hazardous material incident responders
- Environmental protection employees
- EMA & EMS personnel
- Housing and Maintenance personnel
- Case workers

REGISTER:

1-800-241-2467

Your confirmation email will contain information on how to access the material needed for the class, and a link/access code to access the class via Zoom. You must download the Zoom app to your device (computer or cell phone) prior to class date.

Questions?

Contact: Roy Stover
(office) 205-655-6572 x3
(cell) 205-617-6090
rstover@alabamafirecollege.org

This course is provided through an NIEHS grant (2U45ES006155-30) and in partnership with the Native American Fish and Wildlife Society. It is open to public sector Emergency Responders and all Tribal members.