

39th Annual Native American Fish & Wildlife Society National Conference

May 9 -12, 2022

Miccosukee Resort and Gaming – Miami, FL

Sponsor: Southeast Region, NAFWS Host: Miccosukee Tribe of Indians of Florida

THEME: “Combatting Invasive Species and Wildlife Disease with Tribal Perspectives”

Agenda: NAFWS Research/Publication Committee Meeting

Tuesday, May 10, 2022

Conference Tanahkek-Cheke: 12:30 p.m. – 1:15 p.m.

Coordinator: Ashley Carlisle, Education Coordinator – NAFWS

12:30 p.m. – 12:35 p.m.

Welcome and Introductions

Coordinator: Ashley Carlisle, Education Coordinator
Native American Fish & Wildlife Society

Committee Purpose: Aid Tribal fish and wildlife professionals navigate, pursue and apply the different aspects of contemporary research related issues including research, professional growth, funding, publications and academia involvement

12:35 p.m. – 1:00 p.m.

Discuss Proposed Projects

- A. Workshops for Publications/Research
- B. Foster MOU with NCTC: Library, Training
- C. Self-determination contract with FWS: Develop cooperative research standards for working with Tribal Nations

1:00 p.m. – 1:15 p.m.

Establish Projects for 2022 and Regular Meeting Dates/Times

1:15 p.m.

Adjourn

We are searching for individuals who are interested in getting involved in this committee. You do have to be a NAFWS Individual Member to be involved. ***

NOTES

Attendees: 11 total

Ideas for Projects and/or Tasks:

- Develop a Guide For Tribes, re: Research
- Talk to Tribes first about training
- Develop relationship with land grant institutions regarding access to scientific literature
- Hire Tribal people to do workshops for Tribes, "train the trainer"
- Recruit students to aid in data analysis and collection with Tribes
- Data collection